

Certificate of Completion

John Smith

has completed the following course:

English Pronunciation & Accent Reduction

KnowledgePond International Education and Development Ltd

During these online individual coaching sessions the learner has improved their English pronunciation skills. They have also learned about the differences between British and American accents and gained knowledge about important aspects of the English pronunciation to be more understandable to other speakers of English.

21 hours

Course Leader

Director

John Smith

has completed the following course:

The Basics of English Pronunciation & Accent Reduction

KnowledgePond International Education and Development Ltd

During these online individual coaching sessions the learner has improved their English pronunciation skills. They have also learned about the differences between British and American accents and gained knowledge about important aspects of the English pronunciation to be more understandable to other speakers of English.

STUDY REQUIREMENT

21 hours live sessions online

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- The features of English pronunciation that are important for mutual understanding
- Differences between British and American accents and dialects
- Apply what was learned to learner's own English pronunciation

SYLLABUS

- The features of English pronunciation
- The different native accents
- English vowel sounds
- English consonant sounds
- English diphthongs
- English stress and intonation

